

PICTORIAL REVIEW OF THE NEWS

PHOTO BY UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

UNITED STATES NURSES GOING TO SERBIA.

The Third American Red Cross Unit: Left to Right—Misses Pauline Kethe, Nellie E. Bundy, Bessie Scanlon, Edna Pfeleiderer, Margaret, Munday, Helen B. Van Meter.

PHOTO BY UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

WINS FAME ON SCREEN.

Miss Estelle Mardo Coffin, a Descendant of Mayflower Pilgrims, Has Leaped Into Fame Through Her "Movie" Work.

PHOTO BY UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

WATCHING AVIATORS DARE DEATH.

A Group at the Flights in San Francisco: Left to Right—G. C. Loen, ing, Mrs. Vincent Astor, Lieut. Milling, U. S. A.; Vincent Astor, Lieut. Antlon, U. S. A.

PHOTO BY HARRIS E. WING

CHILDREN DANCE OLD TIME STEPS AT PARTY AT PLAYHOUSE.

The Children's Dancing Class Arranged By Mrs. Arthur Lee to Meet Weekly at the Playhouse Under the Tutelage of Miss Minnie Hawke Blossomed Into a Costume Party on Wednesday Last. The Forty Youngsters are the Friends of Mrs. Lee's Two Youngest Sons, Arthur and Tom Davis Lee, and are Washington's Future Social Leaders. The Children Danced a Delightful Old Time Minuette and Went Prettily Through the Graceful Steps of the Pavlova Gavotte.

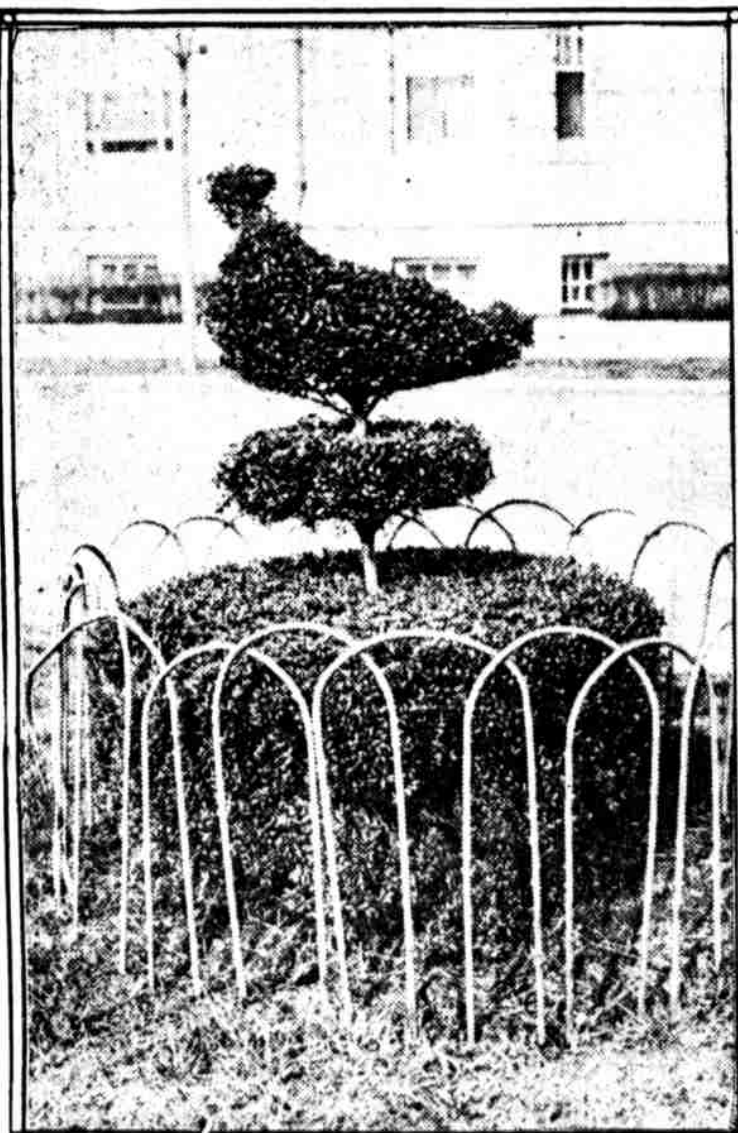

PHOTO BY BUCK

THE HEN.

Near Connecticut Avenue Bridge.

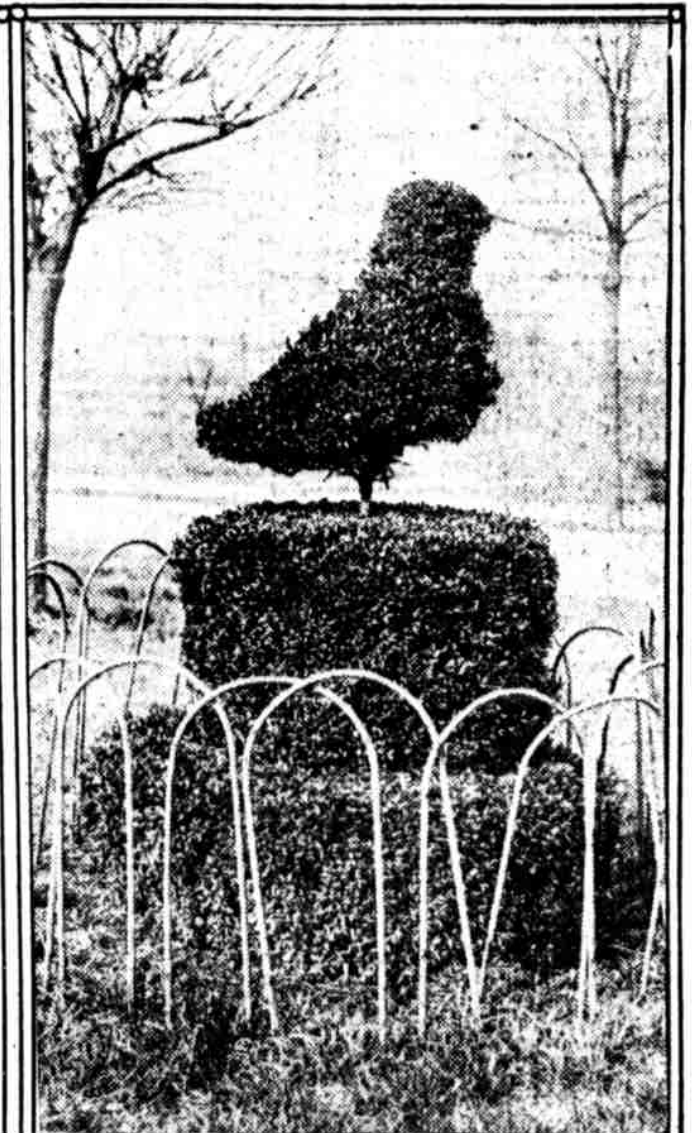

THE DOUBLE EIGHT.

Iowa Circle.

THE FARMER'S FOUNTAIN.

Iowa Circle.

THE ROOSTER.

Near Connecticut Avenue Bridge.

UNIQUE FLORICULTURE IN WASHINGTON GREEN SPOTS WHICH WINS MUCH INTEREST